

GLORIOUS GRAMMAR

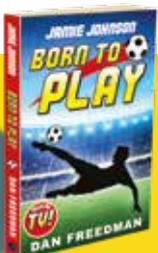

LEARN WITH JAMIE JOHNSON!

PUPILS' GUIDE

GO FOR YOUR GOALS

INTRODUCTION

Sometimes, spelling, punctuation and grammar can be quite tricky to learn.

I found it tough to get to grips with when I was at school. We all need to use it, though, otherwise people find it hard to understand what we are trying to write.

In the end, my writing took me to two World Cups as a football journalist with the England Team. I'm sure your writing can take you to some great places too...

That's why I've teamed up with a great English teacher called Adam Bernard and, together, we've designed these little challenges for you. Hopefully, using a Jamie Johnson story and some fun football sentences will make it that little bit easier.

I hope you enjoy reading BORN TO PLAY. It's a special prequel to the rest of the Jamie Johnson stories and it was the book that the first series of the Jamie Johnson TV show was based on.

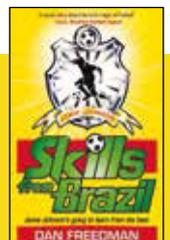

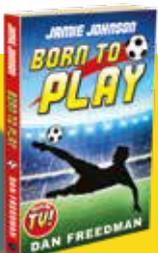

I also hope that it will help you become really skilful in your use of spelling, punctuation and grammar too.

I strongly believe that our words and our writing can take us wherever we want to go.

So good luck and GO FOR YOUR GOALS!

CONJUNCTIONS

Activities Based on Chapter 1 (Over His Head) of BORN TO PLAY

COORDINATING CONJUNCTIONS

A coordinating conjunction is placed between two main clauses creating a compound sentence.

Try remembering it by this code:

F - for
A - and N - nor
B - but
O - or
Y - yet
S - so

The following list gives examples of coordinating conjunctions in a sentence based on chapter one of BORN TO PLAY.

-  Jamie hit the ball hard, for this was his moment.
-  Tyler Forbes was an unpleasant boy, and he was rude to all those around him.
-  Bryn and Tyler never picked Jamie for matches, nor did they speak to him kindly during the school day.
-  The boy jumped in the air to head the ball, but he missed it and landed on the wet ground with a thud.
-  Jamie was clearly the best player at The Grove, so a few of the boys were jealous of him.

CONJUNCTIONS

Activities Based on Chapter 1 (Over His Head) of BORN TO PLAY

CHALLENGE

Write seven sentences using each of the coordinating conjunctions on the FANBOYS code.

EXAMPLES

-  He had to make a pass now, or someone would take the ball from under his feet.
-  Hugo wanted to get involved in the game, yet he was cautious to stay out of Bryn and Tyler's way.
-  He leant backwards and moved his legs high in the air, so he could kick the ball with a scissor-like motion.
-  Jamie was clearly very talented at football, for his skills were better than much older children.

SUBORDINATING CONJUNCTIONS

Subordinating conjunctions can introduce subordinate clauses.
The following list will be useful if you can memorise this list.

After
As if Because
Before
During
Even if

If
Now that Provided that Since
So that Though

Unless Until
When Whenever Whilst

The following list gives examples of subordinating conjunctions in sentences based on chapter one of BORN TO PLAY.

Remember to put the comma between the clauses if the subordinate clause is first!

-  After Hugo helped Jamie up, Jamie thought about what a good friend he was.
-  Before Jamie slipped over, he could hear the cruel laugh of a teammate behind him.
-  Whilst Jamie had been embarrassed by his fall, it was not as embarrassing as when he wet himself at Wheatlands.

Remember that if you are using the subordinating conjunction in the middle of the sentence you don't need a comma.

-  Jamie thought about what a good friend Hugo was after Hugo helped him up.
-  Jamie could hear the cruel laugh of a teammate behind him before he slipped over.
-  Jamie knew he would be a big star one day though he knew it would take hard work.
-  The boys started singing as if they were trying to goad Jamie into reacting.

CONJUNCTIONS

Activities Based on Chapter 1 (Over His Head) of BORN TO PLAY

CHALLENGE

Write one or more paragraphs continuing from the end of chapter one. In the paragraph, you should use as many subordinating conjunctions as you can from the list provided. You should put your subordinating conjunctions both at the beginning and in the middle of their sentences.

EXAMPLES

Even though his knee hurt like crazy, Jamie refused to let them see him cry. Football was all he was good at. Despite being in some of the top sets at school, he didn't have much confidence in anything other than football. Hugo and Bryn would now tease him whenever they got the chance. Great! Since he performed so badly in that match, he would have to find a chance to prove his worth again. Provided he did that, they would leave him alone until they decided to start with him again.

CLAUSES

Activities Based on Chapter 4 (Glory Days) and Chapter 5 (Warm Up) of BORN TO PLAY

CLAUSES

SUBORDINATE CLAUSE

Subordinate clause – part of a sentence that does not make sense on its own; it needs to be joined with a main clause to make sense.

MAIN CLAUSE

Main clause – a section of a sentence that makes complete sense on its own. It must have subject and a verb!

CHALLENGE

Match up the following clauses to make a sentence. Subordinating conjunctions have been written in bold. We've given you an example for the first answer.

- | | |
|---|--|
| B  Provided that they got to the stadium on time, |  Mike still remembered every moment clearly. |
| C  Even though they couldn't afford to purchase a season ticket, |  Mike had bought him his first football. |
| D  When Jamie was younger, |  they might get to see the warm-up. |
| E  After the game, |  Jamie couldn't believe it was him in the photograph. |
| F  As Mike and Jamie left the house, |  Mike got them both an ice-cream. A |
| G  When Jamie was three years old, |  they had a secret fish and chip dinner. |
| H  Although he knew his grandfather well, |  Mike realized he had forgotten his wallet and had to go back and get it. |
| I  Despite playing professional football over 40 years ago, |  Jamie and Mike went to as many games as possible. |
| J  As they walked the three-kilometer journey to the ground, |  Mike used to carry him on his shoulders. |

CLAUSES

Activities Based on Chapter 4 (Glory Days)
and Chapter 5 (Warm Up) of BORN TO PLAY

CLAUSES

Remember that the subordinating conjunctions don't always have to go at the beginning of the sentence. Sometimes they can go in the middle. Commas are not necessary when you structure a sentence in this order.

CHALLENGE

Match up the following clauses to make a sentence. Subordinating conjunctions have been written in bold. We've given you an example for the first answer.

MAIN CLAUSE

- A  Harry Armstrong was super brave
- B  Jamie stared at Glenn Richardson with admiration
- C  Jamie watched the Hawkstone players for extra tips
- D  He closed his eyes and imagined being a world-class football player
- E  Jamie asked Mike not to come to his game
- F  Tony Walsh was the chairman of Hawkstone
- G  Jamie was very careful when taking out the poster of Harry Armstrong
- H  Certain players would pair off with each other
- I  Tibbs was a great player
- J  Jamie would read his match programme from cover to cover

SUBORDINATE CLAUSE

-  as soon as he got home.
-  since his clumsiness sometimes made him tear things.
-  although he was rude to the fans which put them off him.
-  whenever the warm-ups took place.
-  as if he was a god.
-  though he was just a normal kid.
-  because he could make a brick wall feel scared. A
-  even though he was already confident in his own ability to beat Kingfield.
-  although the fans were the club's true owners.
-  despite Mike's constant support for Jamie's footballing skills.

ADVERBS

Activities Based on Chapter 6 (Two on Two) of BORN TO PLAY

ADVERBS

Adverbs modify verbs and adjectives; they tell us how something is done, why it is done, when it is done, and where.

The following four categories of adverb are widely used.

Adverbs of space:

- ⚽ anywhere
- ⚽ outside
- ⚽ everywhere
- ⚽ there
- ⚽ upstairs

Adverbs of manner:

- ⚽ reluctantly
- ⚽ timidly
- ⚽ badly
- ⚽ menacingly

- ⚽ regularly
- ⚽ yesterday

Adverbs of degree:

- ⚽ very well
- ⚽ certainly
- ⚽ almost
- ⚽ absolutely
- ⚽ much
- ⚽ little
- ⚽ just
- ⚽ barely
- ⚽ nearly

CHALLENGE

Underline the adverbs in the following sentence. Write down next to the sentence what type of adverb they are. We've given you an example for the first answer.

- ⚽ 'Hawkstone were having an extremely good season.' degree
- ⚽ 'Generally, Mike didn't say much while the game was on...'
- ⚽ '...as though the Hawkstone players would somehow be able to magically pick up his suggestion.'
- ⚽ Hawkstone players have an amazing training pitch just outside the centre of the city.
- ⚽ 'Mike almost tripped over on the way to the game.
- ⚽ 'Apparently, they've made a special plan to put you off your game.'
- ⚽ 'When they teamed up together they made a pretty menacing pair.'
- ⚽ 'O.K. Jack said suddenly, surprising all three of the boys.'

ADVERBS

Activities Based on Chapter 6 (Two on Two) of BORN TO PLAY

- ⚽ Afterwards, the boys decided to go and buy some chocolate from the shop.
- ⚽ "Maybe you will," smiled Jack, calmly.'
- ⚽ '...coming up next to Jack and Jamie, aggressively staring them both in the eye.'
- ⚽ "Well then," asked Bryn impatiently. "What's it gonna be?"
- ⚽ Jamie had planned to hang out at Jack's house later on.
- ⚽ "What are you doing?" Jamie whispered angrily to Jack.'

CHALLENGE

Write ONE or MORE paragraphs continuing on from the end of this chapter. Include at least FIVE adverbs. Try to include ONE adverb from each category. An example has been provided below.

EXAMPLE

Jamie and Jack turned fearlessly towards Bryn and Tyler. They couldn't go anywhere but straight into the boys. But this worked perfectly. He walked slowly towards them. His heart was hammering inside his chest.

Jamie regularly avoided the boys, but now he had Jack to back him up, so he squared up to them. He was definitely not scared now. Yesterday, he was petrified.

"Are you ready?" Tyler growled.

"Absolutely," Jamie said, confidently. "More ready than you'll ever be."

PREPOSITIONS

Activities Based on Chapter 9 (The Overhead Kick) of BORN TO PLAY

SPATIAL PREPOSITIONS

Spatial prepositions are related to space. Some spatial prepositions can be confused for adverbs of space. A preposition often modifies a verb, whilst an adverb does not.

Some of the following sentences are based loosely around chapter nine of BORN TO PLAY.

-  Above – Jack kicked the ball above Jamie’s head.
-  Across – He weaved across the tarmac.
-  Against – Jamie and Jack leant against the tree as they chatted.
-  Ahead of – The goal was ahead of him.
-  Along – Jack led Jamie along the park to a larger space where they could play.
-  Among – The postman watched the two children run among the trees.
-  Around – The energetic boy ran around the ball.
-  Below – “Strike the ball with your laces...don’t look below it – keep your eyes on it.”
-  Beneath – Beneath his feet, Jamie could feel the grass tickle his bare skin.
-  Beside – Jack was beside him, and Jamie immediately felt more relaxed.
-  Between - Shaun McGiven can make the ball soar between the goalkeeper’s hands.
-  From – I can always manage to get the ball from my opponent.
-  In front of – Jamie did a perfect overhead kick in front of Jack.
-  Near – He was dangerously near the goal.
-  Off – “Get off me!” Jamie shouted as he was pulled to the ground.
-  Through – Jamie weaved through the maze of players.
-  Towards – He felt the ball rushing towards him, and prepared to head it.
-  Under – The ball slid under the hands of the goalkeeper.
-  Within – He felt excitement buzz within him as the fans cheered.

PREPOSITIONS

Activities Based on Chapter 9 (The Overhead Kick) of BORN TO PLAY

CHALLENGE

Write ONE or MORE paragraphs based loosely on chapter nine, using as many spatial prepositions as possible. Underline the prepositions so that you can look back and see how many you have used. An example has been given below.

EXAMPLE

Jamie felt butterflies within his stomach. Jack sat beside him. She was talking about players from Kingfield like Dillon and Ollie and Ash, and between all of the names, Jamie's head started to spin!

He felt better once Jack taught him her overhead kick trick. He made sure there was plenty of space in front of and behind him before he began.

PREPOSITIONS

Activities Based on Chapter 9 (The Overhead Kick) of BORN TO PLAY

TEMPORAL PREPOSITIONS

These prepositions of time are often used at the beginning or in the middle of a complex sentence. Some of these temporal prepositions also act as subordinating conjunctions.

Some of the following sentences are based loosely around chapter nine BORN TO PLAY.

-  After the match, the boys went and had a large fish and chip dinner.
-  Before the school bus arrived outside her house, Jack had time to watch repeats of yesterday's match.
-  Between the hours of one and two in the afternoon, Jamie was with Jack.
-  During his Geography lesson, Jamie found himself writing about the offside rule.
-  Following his awful behavior in a PE lesson, Bryn was sent to the headmaster's office.
-  Jack waited patiently until Jamie finally mastered the movement.

CHALLENGE

Write ONE or MORE paragraphs based loosely on chapter nine, using as many temporal prepositions as possible. Underline the prepositions so that you can look back and see how many you have used. An example has been given below.

EXAMPLE

Before Jamie attempted the overheadkick, he had to relax. That's what Jack said. She waited patiently until Jamie was ready. Once he had focused, he did it beautifully. During the movement, he didn't take his eyes off of the ball.

DIALOGUE AND INVERTED COMMAS

Activities Based on Chapter 15 (A Touch of Class) of BORN TO PLAY

INVERTED COMMAS

Inverted commas should be placed AROUND the dialogue, with punctuation on the inside as follows.

“I have to help that boy,” Jamie called. (correct)

“I need to call my grandfather”, Jamie said. (incorrect)

CHALLENGE

Put the inverted commas and missing commas in the correct place.
We've given you an example for the first answer.

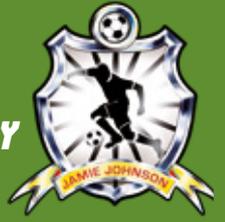

- ⚽ “That’s my boy out there,” Mike said to the man behind him in the crowd. “Jamie. Jamie Johnson. Isn’t he a great player?”
- ⚽ Mike passed the security guard outside the school grounds and patted him on the shoulder. My grandson has both the talent and character to be a very special footballer indeed.
- ⚽ The guard nodded at him. I saw how he played he said in awe. What a great kid.
- ⚽ I think my son and I owe you a thank you, the large man said smiling. Jamie is it?
- ⚽ Ollie’s fine The man smiled. But it could have been serious. The blow to his head knocked him clean out and his tongue was blocking his airway...It’s just lucky you kicked the ball out when you did. Is there any way I can thank you?
- ⚽ It’s fine said Jamie. Don’t worry about it. I’m just glad he’s OK.
- ⚽ No, really. I mean it – it was a real touch of class what you did...Trust me, I’ll think of something he said, getting into his car.
- ⚽ Hang on a minute said the man getting back out of his car. Who do you support, Jamie?
- ⚽ Hawkstone United said Jamie proudly. All the way.
- ⚽ Good smiled the man. I was hoping you might say that...and where are you planning to watch the Cup game tomorrow?
- ⚽ You could do that said the man. Or you and your family could come to the game as my guests. How would you like to be Hawkstone’s mascot, Jamie? I’m the chairman, by the way. My name’s Tony Walsh.
